Red Mass Honored Those Who Administer Law

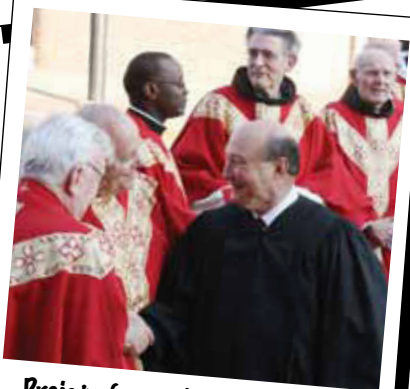

Friday, May 7, Holy Trinity Church filled with judges, lawyers, government officials, Knights of Columbus and priests to celebrate the 18th annual Red Mass. Fr. Matthew Long was the homilist and spoke with conviction about Saint Thomas More and other historic figures who held their moral convictions throughout history, shaping our current legal system. This year's Red Mass honored three members of the legal community who have recently passed away: Michael Hubley, Don Miller and Diana Pratt-Wyatt.

Candles were presented in memory of legal officials who have recently passed away.

Fr. Matthew Long was the homilist for this year's Red Mass.

Priests from throughout the Diocese of Shreveport gathered for this special Mass.

Red Mass honored Judges, Lawyers and Government Officials.

Red Mass is an ecumenical event, bringing together Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths.
